

Progressing to small sided passing game

Description

Set up a small playing field (use the width of the field)

Split your team in half and give positions of offense and defense. NO Goalies

The teams can only score once they complete 2-3 passes (coaches choice)

The coach yells out whether the team has enough passes to score.

Once the opposing team controls (not just touches) the ball the passing count resets